About the Joseph Middlemiss Big Heart Foundation:

At the young age of 6, Joseph Scott Middlemiss unexpectedly lost his life to cardiomyopathy, which is a disease of the heart muscle.

The Joseph Middlemiss Big Heart Foundation honors Joseph's message of "All You Need is Love" by spreading kindness, empowering children, funding cardiomyopathy research, and supporting families battling pediatric cardiac conditions.

About Soul City Band:

Soul City has been packing dance floors since 1988. Much of the band's time is spent traveling throughout the New England area, bringing high-energy performances, exciting vocal harmonies, driving grooves, and horn sections to different events across many states.
